

A Complimentary Golf Gift From Your Company or Organization

As a golf enthusiast, you know that the game can be played and enjoyed with family, friends and for business purposes for a lifetime. Because golf is a game, it's meant to be fun. To help you have more fun and enjoyment from your game, I've included an Ebook gift called Golf Instruction Made Simple www.golfinstructionmadesimple.com.

The author, Alan Martin created it in a unique how-to format that's written for both serious and casual golfers in a simple language, with many illustrations that make it easy to understand and learn from. The Ebook introduces Thumbs Down, The POWER MOVE of Golf that cured Alan's slice and significantly improved his ball striking and overall game. Currently Alan teaches the fundamentals of golf at Princeton University. This link is a short audio preview of the book. The Ebook is part of Turn Golf Into Business "TGIB", a platform for companies to maximize their business success and gain competitive advantages, by capitalizing on the POWER and POPULARITY of golf. As you'll see, the Ebook can also include personalized content like company information, promotional / brand messages, logos, or anything you want to give to customers, prospects, workmates, business colleagues, etc. It's a natural as a holiday, birthday or special occasion gift, with or without an instructional session with Alan.

In addition to a great golf gift, the Ebook makes a unique fundraising vehicle, targeted to benefit sponsors at golf outings. Alan can also be booked to help you raise additional funds and enjoyability for all event attendees, with short game improvement sessions and his on-course "beat my shot contest". Feel free to forward this to anyone else you think would benefit from its instructional content, to use as a promotional product for business, and / or at golf outings as described above. If you want to buy the Pro Edition Ebook which includes drills to practice, Do's and Don'ts, plus 5 of the most important fundamentals that golfers of all skill levels need to apply for better and more enjoyable golf plus a video, receive more information, or help improving your golf game, email Alan directly at thumbsdowngolf@gmail.com.

Thank you again for your business and enjoy!

From,

YOU
